"Lost Francer." In our last issue, we copied from the Columbia Phoenix s list of freight, purporting to be a correct account of the goods destined for points on the Greenville and Columbia Railroad, which had been destroyed by the accident of last Saturday, on the South Carolina Railroad. FALSE IMPERSONMENT—SUIT FOR DAMAGES.— A short time since, a negro named Charles Lafayette was arrested for stealing a watch and chain from Mrs. Kinsman. While Lafayette was in prison, the watch and chain were found, and he was then discharged. He instituted a suit against Mr. and Mrs. Kinsman for false imprisonment-laying his claims at ninety-nine dollars. The case was called yesterday, before Magistrate Mackey. Mr. Barrett Cohen appeared as counsel for the defendants, and Mr. R. S. Tharin for the plaintiff. After their arguments, the magistrate announced that he would reserve his decision.

REPUGITOR OF TELEGRAPH RATES. - The Western Union Telegraph Company has determined to make a general and material reduction in their tariff of rates, commencing on the first of October. The new system is worked ont on the principle of "air line" distance from point to point. Heretofore the rate was com-puted by the zigzag route a dispatch was sent. These reduced rates will apply to private telegrams only, having no bearing whatever on "Press" or "Special" telegrams, To many points, for instance, Washington, Baltimore and Philadelphia, the rates will remain as they are at present, but to New York the tariff upon every message of ten words will be fifteen cents there has been a great deal of discussion about the police force of late, we think the following statement, containing some facts relating to the force in other days, will be of interest. The force in 1848 consisted of one captain three lieutenants, eight sergeants, eight corpomitted out of his jurisdiction. rals and one hundred and ten privates-one hundred and thirty in all. In 1852 there were one captain, seven lieutenants, three orderly sergcauts, eight sergeants, twelve corporals, and two hundred and thirty privates, three drummers and three fifers-total number two hundred and sixty-seven. They were armed with muskets and bayonets. In 1956 there were one chief, two captains, six lieutenants. twenty sergean's, one hundred and fifty privates, four police agents, ten eeplemen, four daymen, and four musicians—total number two ed and one, the cost per annum being $102 150. In 1868 there were one captain, six lieuteuan s, twenty sergeants, one hundred and fifty privates, four police agents, ten nen, four daymen and four musicians -total number one handred and ninety-nine. The cost per annum, exclusive of fifty horses provided at the expense of the city, $89,760.

ASSAULT WITH INTENT TO KILL .- Mr. Charles Hamberg, a merchant, of Columbia, appeared before Magistrate Mackey, yesterday, and stated that on Tuesday night last, he, with a purchase goods, and a discussion ensued be- ful career as a lawyer at the bar. He leaves a tween him and a clerk, when the clerk seized a chisel and told him that if he did not apologize he would kill him; and for this he prayed for the arrest of the clerk. The warrant was issued, the clerk arrested and required to give $1000 security for his appearance at the State Court for trial. PROLIFIC COTTON .- With the amount of intelligence now brought to bear on the improvement of the cotton plant and its culture, it is difficult to say what the utmost limit of its yield may be on soil so well suited to its growth as that of the South. Cotton growers themselves are surprised at the developments which are daily taking place in reference to the prolific character of the plant under good manipulation. At the office of Messrs. George W. Williams & Co., merchants of our city, we yesterday noticed some rich specimens of the cotton plant, which were striking for their prolific character and luxuriant growth. They were raised by Mr. John S. Mackrell, of Blackshown were grown on sandy soil, and had on them about 350 bolls each -those cultivated on offered to clerks, governesses, tutors, workused was of the Dickson variety, and the manure was the Carolina fertilizer.

in search of her, but failed to find her. In the evening of the same day, four ladies passed the stationbouse, when this officer, it appears, recognized one of them as the missing lady. I was detailed to request her attendance at the stationhouse, which I did, and she reported in company with another lady, I walking a little distance behind. It was found that a mistake as to identity had occurred, which was satisfactorily explained, and the ladies departed.

CRUMBS .- A discussion, at the last meeting of Council, upon a petition from a party living in the upper wards to erect a wooden dwelling, revealed the fact that the ordinance adopted on December 19, 1849, providing that wooden buildings could be erected upon the Neck for a definite period, will expire upon the 19th of this December. Parties who intend building in that section had better apply at once for licenses to do so.

We learn that Magistrate Bunch has gone to Columbia to "interview" Governor Scott in reference to his case.

The investigation into the charges against the City Engineer was commenced yesterday It is reported that Alderman Voigt will at the next meeting of Council introduce a bill providing that the detectives shall not receive any portion of the fines imposed by the Mayor. The committee on the Nicolson pavement have not reported yet. During the session of Council Tuesday night, several omnibuses passed and repassed the City Hall, creating a good deal of noise. It was shrewdly surmised that a party interested in having the payement put down had hired the emnibuses to drive disturb the members by the rolling over the stony streets, and thus convince them of the necessity of having the pavement. It is understood that two of the Aldermer who, on Tuesday last, spoke upon the question of employing an engineer and a stenographer for the City Engineer Investigating Committee, deem their remarks of enough importance to be be published in the official proceedings.

Elsewhere will be found a reply to the remark of Alderman Mackey, made in Council Tuesday night, that "the Board of Firemasters had treated Council with contempt." What has become of the 'Stevedore's bull?"

We learn that some of the friends of Magistrate Bunch are circulating a petition to be sent to Governor Scott, praying that Magistrate J. G. Mackey be removed from office. The fines imposed by the Mayor yesterday amounted to five dollars.

Suspicious Circumstances.-Yesterday i polored man from Edisto Island went to Magistrate Mackey and stated that about the last of August his father went fishing with another colored man who had been heard to threaten his life. They did not return for several days and a search was made for them, and the body of the old man was found floating in the water. It was believed that he had met with foul play from his companion, and a magistrate was requested to hold an inquest, but refused to do so unless he was paid six dollars. The colored men not having that amount, buried the body THE POLICE PORCE IN OTHER DAYS .- As without having an inquest held. The City Fire Engines, &c.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEWS.

In your issue of the 22d instant, among the proceedings of the City Council, you state that Alderman T. J. Mackey said that the Board of Firemasters had, in their mode of complying with the recent ordinance, seen fit to treat the Council with perfect contempt. This most excellent specimen of aldermanic greatness sees fit for purposes of his own to construe matters as he pleases. It may be that he was chagrined because the committee of the Board of Firemasters insisted on a pri vate interview with the Mayor, and said Alderman was requested to leave the Council room Now, what is the true state of the case Council passed this Mackey ordinance, by which the city has to pay $10,800 additiona for the support of six colored engine compa stock, Fairfield County, S. C. and the plants | nies that cannot earn the sixteenth part of this amount, and, in doing this, one company was dispanded that has been in the department as was done I suppose, to strengthen this Alderman-general in his future political career. Maybe it will. The Council had the power to THAT UNFORTUNATE MISTAKE. -On the 11th pass the ordinance, and no disrespect was ever of this month THE NEWS stated that, "the intended or offered. Immediately after the young lady who was arrested yesterday afternoon, in Spring-street, by the police, was not the person sought for, but so closely resembled her that the mistake, though unfortunate and to be deeply regretted, was most natural."

Since then there has been considerable talk about the affair, and a number of statements have been circulated. These have come to the ears of Mr. L. T. Gardner, the policeman who arrested the young lady, and he has sent us his version of the affair, as follows:

On the morning of the 10th of September, a lady reported at the up-town stationhouse of the disappearance of her daughter, leaving at the same time her description, and requesting her arrest. An officer (not myself) was sent in search of her, but failed to find her. In the evening of the same day, four ladies passed the strengths and the chairman and vice of the Mayor informed he would be waited on the next day, which he was by the creating him of the passage of the ordinance, several colored persons, unknown to the Chief, called at his residence and demanded the two engines—one belonging to No. 7 and the other used as a reserve. These engines, with all the city proper-ty belonging to No. 7 and the other used as a reserve. These engines with all the city proper-time belonging to No. 7 and the other used as a reserve. These engines with all the city proper-time belonging to No. 7 and the other used as a reserve. These engines, with all the city proper-time belonging to No. 7 and the other used as a reserve. These engines, with all the city proper-time belonging to No. 7 and the other used as a reserve. These engines, with all the city proper always been held by the board, and not by the Chief. The demand was refused on the ground that no official communication had been given the board by the policy always always been held by the policy always always been held by the policy always been held by the board, and not by the Chief. The demand was passage of the ordinance, several colored peragreeing that what had been done was correct, and requesting that his communication should be laid before the board at its first meeting as official. This was done, and the board passed a resolution requiring the Chief and clerk to deliver over to the Mayor and Council all the engines, hose reels, hose and other articles held by them relating to the city engines. This was accordingly done by the Chief and clerk, and no fault was found by the Mayor. Appended to the same resolution was one from the board giving (as their opinion) the value of the five engines and the two thousand feet of hose at $4000. The engines and recls were valued at $400 each, the same price paid by the Stonewall and Young America Companies, and the two thousand feet of hose at $1 per foot.

Now, we ask, were these proceedings in any

Now, we ask, were these proceedings in any way offensive to either his floor the Mayor or the City Conneil? Certainly the Mayor did not think so. The board were not bound to receive the Mayor's communication as official, but did so from courtesy. It has always been customary for all official communications to be sent to the board from the clerk of the City sent to the board from the clerk of the City Council. In this case none has been so sent even up to the present time.

So much for "Alderman-general Thomas Jefferson." The resolutions of the board which were communicated to the Mayor will doubtless be laid before Council, as the same was directed "to the Honorable Mayor and Alderman."

While the sun is below the horizon this vapor lingers near the earth's surface, and the virus is taken with it through the lungs into the blood.
There it acts as an irritating poison on the internal viscera and excreting organs of the body.
The liver becomes torpid and fails to secrete not only this virus, but also the bile from the blood.
Both the virus and the bile accumulate in the circulation, and produce violent constitutional disorder.
The spieen, the kidneys, and the stom-ch sympathize with the liver, and become disordered also,
Finally, the instinct of our organism, as it in an attempt to expel the noxious infusion, concentrates ries to force them to cast it out. The blood leaves the surface, and rushes to the central organs with congestive violence. This is the Chill. But in this ries to force them to cast it out. The blood leaves the surface, and rushes to the central organs with congestive violence. This is the Chill. But in this effort it tails. Then the Fever follows, in which the blood leaves the central organs and rushes to the surface, as it in another effort to expel the irritating poison through that other great excretory—the skin. In this also it fails, and the system abandons the attempt exhausted, and waits for the recovery of strength to repeat the hopeless effort another day. These are the fits of paroxysms of Fever and Ague. Such constitutional disorder will of course under mine the health if it is not removed.

We have labored to find, and have found an anti-dote,

Which neutralizes this malarious poison in the blood, and stimulates the liver to expel it from the body. As at should, so it does cure this afflicting disjurder with perfect certainty. And it does nors, or rather does what is of more service to those sub-ject to this infection. If taken in season it expels or rather does what is of more service to those subject to this infection. If taken in season it expels it from the system as it is absorved, and thus keeps those who use it free from its attacks; keeps the system in health although exposed to the disease. Consequently it not only cures, but protects from, the great variety of affections which are induced by this malignant influence, such as Remittent Fever, Co II Fever, Dumb, or Masked Ague, Periodical Headache, or Bilious Headache, Bilious Fevers, Neuralda, Rheumatism, Gout, Bliudness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitations Paulful Affections of the Spiene, Hysterics, Colic, Paralysis, and Painful Affect ons of the Somach and Eowels, all of which, when arising from this cause, will be found to assume, more or less, the intermittent type. This "AGUE CURE," removes the cause of these derangements and cures the disease.

This it accomplishes by stimulating the excretories to expel the virus from the system; and these organs by degrees become habited to do this, their office, of their own accord. Hence arises what we term acclimatation. Time may accomplish the essee end, but often life is not long enough, or is sacrificed in the attempt, while this "Ague Cure" does it at once, and with safety. We have great reason to be lieve this is a surer as well as safer remedy for the whole class of diseases which are caused by the miasmatic intection, than any other which has been discovered; and it has still another important advantage to the public, which is, that it is cheap as well as good.
